EE Week Update--Nature Bee Now Online

EE Week is only two weeks away! Whether you are a newcomer to EE Week or seasoned participant, our new online Nature Bees can help you to incorporate environmental education in your classroom curricula.

Developed in partnership with the National Wildlife Federation, EE Week's online Nature Bees offer students in grades K-12 the opportunity to test their knowledge of North American wildlife while encouraging them to get outside and explore their own schoolyards. Click on the links below to access a Nature Bee for your students:

About the National Environmental Education & Training Foundation

Chartered by Congress in 1990, the National Environmental Education & Training Foundation (NEETF) is a private non-profit organization dedicated to the strategic advancement of environmental literacy and education in its many forms. Since 2004, NEETF has coordinated the implementation of National Environmental Education Week, a weeklong event designed to increase the educational impact of Earth Day by creating a full week of educational preparation, learning, and activities in K-12 classrooms, nature centers, zoos, museums, and aquariums.
